 Elsie Carter - Battle speech pl...

My dear friends of Eel Island, we are gathered here today to fight an old enemy the Cats! We have lived on this island for many months and now we must fight together to continue surviving. Although I have sometimes been a cruel leader, I am proud to be here with you today. We will fight together, as brothers and sisters, and rebuild this broken land.

The worthless Cats, who have no decency, have left their own flooded isle to steal ours. We have allowed them onto our shores but now we must stop them. If we do not stand against the Cats, they will take our homes, our food and our lives. Thankfully, the Cats are weak and lack the strength in numbers to take our precious cathedral away from us. Also, the Cat spy, whose foolishness got him captured, has allowed us to prepare for this fight.

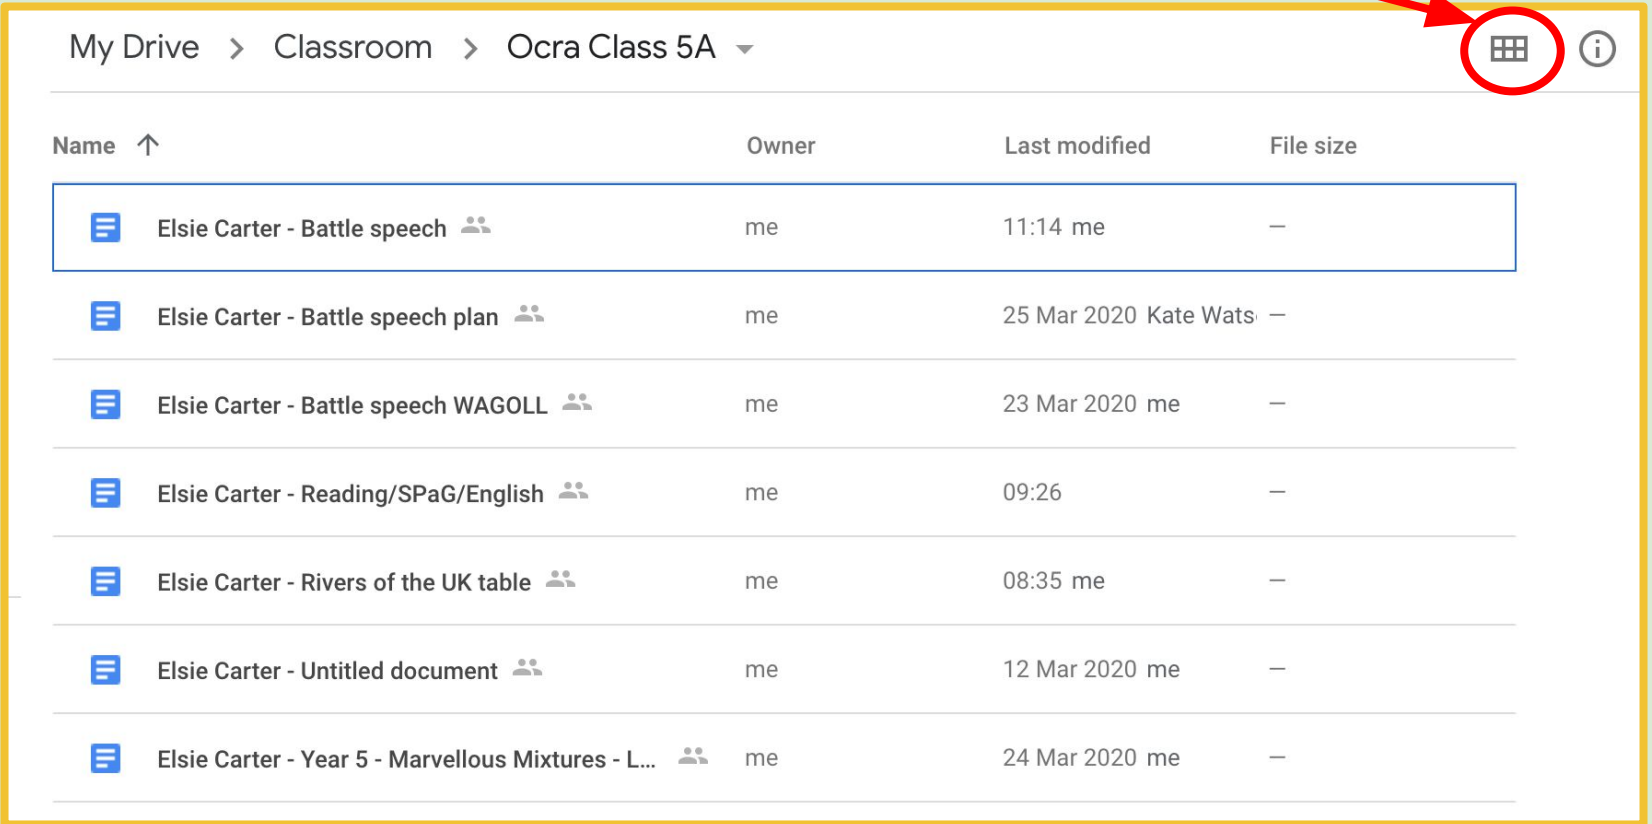

In order for victory to be ours, you must follow the plan to the letter. We will allow the vicious enemy to pass through the ruined buildings and meet us on the green, in front of the cathedral. Just when they think they're about to win, we'll alter the course of the battle by surrounding them on all sides with our reinforcements. The battle should not take long and I expect us to be victorious within minutes.

Although I do not expect the battle to last long, I'm afraid some

The screenshot shows the Google Drive interface for a folder named "Odra Class 5A". The breadcrumb path is "My Drive > Classroom > Odra Class 5A". In the top right corner, there are two icons: a grid view icon (highlighted with a red circle and a red arrow) and an information icon. Below the breadcrumb, there is a table with the following columns: "Name" (with an upward arrow), "Owner", "Last modified", and "File size". The table contains seven rows of files, each with a blue list view icon on the left.
