Project Outcome		Description and Visit Portland - Why are you proud to be a Portlander? - Power Skills: I can use digital resources to record my voice and write sentences. I can listen to feedback from adults and improve my work using their advice.	Artwork and poetry recital Power skills: I can say how a picture proves what I am thinking about a problem or question. I can share the information I have learnt by talking, writing, drawing and using numbers.		Make a Castle Power skills: I can read and use online resources to find information to help me spot patterns or to answer a question. With an adult to help me, I can use tools and/or materials to design and/or build something that solves a problem.		Class debate Power skills: I can answer questions about my thoughts and ideas. I can listen calmly when someone is sharing an idea I don't agree with. With an adult to help me, I can understand that people have different ideas and thoughts.	Clay fossil exhibition in classes to parents Power skills: I care about what my work looks like and how good the work is. I can explain that challenges help me learn. (Growth mindset) I can use steps I have learned to fix a problem, which is like ones I have fixed before.	Teddy Bears Picnic Power skills: I can talk to an adult or small group about something I am learning. I can talk about my ideas and thoughts about a topic. I can talk about my own goals.
